Dear Miss Sneed:-

My cousin Ivy Mai McFerrin has sent me your letter to her, and which I have copied and returned to her. I was very much interested and read it with a great deal of pleasure.

The James Crichlow referred to was also my great grand father and what you say about his being apprenticed to a cabinet maker sounds logical, as we have a shaving stand made by him and a family here has a secretary said to have been made by him.

My father James H. Crichlow died in 1922 has often told me of going to school to Branker Crichlow but he always said he was no relation. How that could be I do not know, but I am extremely anxious to find out more about my Crichlow kin. I found the records in Franklin of Henry S. Crichlow, he mentions his wife Sallie G. Crichlow, grand daughter Caty, son Joseph E.; son John B.; I found other references which led me to believe that he also had a son Branker.

Do you know from what County in North Carolina they came? On James Crichlow's head stone the inscription says born in North Carolina 1793. He married in 1817 Sarah H. Nelson, daughter of Thomas Nelson, who settled in Rutherford County, Tenn. around 1800.

If by chance you know the name of this North Carolina County I will be very grateful in hearing from you,

I married Martha Quarles of Clarksville and her people Mat and Nan Quarles say they have known you for years. We are hoping to see you again in the near future to renew old and make new acquaintance.

With appreciation and best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Cousin Catharine:

Thanks very much for your letter of March 28th. I certainly appreciate the data you sent as well as the information you gave us when we visited you. Our visit was most enjoyable and it was a pleasure to make your acquaintance.

The history that you mentioned is a History of Tennessee and is in several volumes. The volume I referred to is "History of Williamson and Other Counties, Tenn. 1886." The only Crichlows mentioned are Thomas H. (my great grandfather), James Henry (my grandfather), Newton Collier (my father), and Laila and Helen (my aunts). Another volume (I don't know which county) mentions Henry and Katie M. Crichlow, Joseph Elliston and Harriet L. (Moore) Crichlow, W. R. and Permelia Annie Wilson Crichlow, and children, Sallie Lee, Daisy Eva Moore, and J. Wilson Crichlow. The volumes were published by Goodspeed Publishing Co., Nashville, Tennessee. I don't know whether it is out of print or not but I am sure you can find it in any library having a genealogy section.

My trip to North Carolina did not yield the information that I had hoped for but was not entirely unsuccessful. As you probably know, all Hertford County records prior to 1862 were burned by the Union Army. This is most disconcerting since I think that is probably where our ancestors settled. However, I did find traces of Crichlows in the adjoining counties of Bertie, N. C. and Southampton, Va. The most interesting one was William Crichlow (Southampton, Va.) who wrote his will in December 1793 and died in 1801. There was no mention of his wife who was probably dead. He mentioned sons John and James and daughter Sussannah. James sold property in 1803 (presumably, his inheritance) and is not mentioned again. John is listed as selling and buying property several times after that. It is possible that James is the orphan nephew of Henry (your great grandfather) who was supposed to have been brought to Tennessee about 1800. I am not at all convinced but this is a possibility which should be checked further. There is an old Episcopal Church at Suffolk, Va. where there may be some old records. I intend to write and, if necessary, to visit the church in person. If you are interested, I will let you know what I find. I am enclosing what information I have on the descendants of James Crichlow. There are others, of course, but my records are not complete as yet.

Thanks again for the information you have given me and I hope to see you again in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

William L. Crichlow

My dear Friend and may I say, kinswoman :

When my mother was named for her great aunt, your grandmother, I feel the ties of blood are sacred. Then Mama was a wee baby (how often I have heard the story) her Mother's father, James Crichlow visited her. My Mother was always pretty, - a Crichlow - . Grandfather asked her name, and expressed surprise that such a pretty baby had not been named earlier. So, he asked to name her for the best, purest saint of a woman he had ever known, - his Aunt Katie Crichlow as he called her. So, my mother was named. This is your Catherine Mullens Crichlow. My Sister says, now that it is brought to mind, that Mama had said she was named for Aunt Betsy Sneed's mother. This name was a sacred name in our family, but I never knew the connection. I did know it was a part of the Methodist conference!

I have written George Reid Crichlow. I send you the data I have. I think I shall yet hear from him.

My daughter found a land transfer in a Virginia record where a Crichlow was there. I shall follow that, for they must not have been in North Carolina for long, as there seems no record there.

I notice from the 1790 census the note I have checked. This could very like have been our family. Do you have any way of recalling the place in North Carolina that Henry Crichlow went back to? Can you find the name of James Crichlow's parents?

Branker Crichlow surely must have been in the war, tho he possibly was too old, as James' father was a grown man with the son in 1793. Any way, we have something to work from.

Eustace Maxwell Shilstone, 17 High St. Bridgetown, Barbadoes, B.W.I. is an authority on the Barbadians. We must get together sometime and see if he can help us. You see some of our greatest families, - the Washingtons, etc. came to the states from the Barbadoes, being political refugees.

I am sure the Crichlows were people of rank that did not have to be blazoned to be felt.

Study to think, think about all that has ever been said. We will get this data.

I am not so eager for it because of D.A.R. eligibility. I have not joined, am leaving that to my children. I want to get the records for them. I already have the complete lines traced to thirty "immigrant" colonial ancestors, with a long line of honor soldiers. But, for my Mother's sake, I am happy not to have her line (which we always felt was the best traced. We were too satisfied with our own standing to make records while those who knew lived. Grandpa Crichlow married Sarah Nelson, daughter of Thomas Nelson and Nancy Howell who was daughter of John Howell whose will was probated in Arferr

Murfreesboro in 1806. He had much wealth and showed he was a man of affairs. Yet, I do not know from whence he came. Collier Crichtlow of Murfreesboro has a picture of the old Nelson home on Stuarts creek where Grandpa Crichtlow bought, and raised his family.

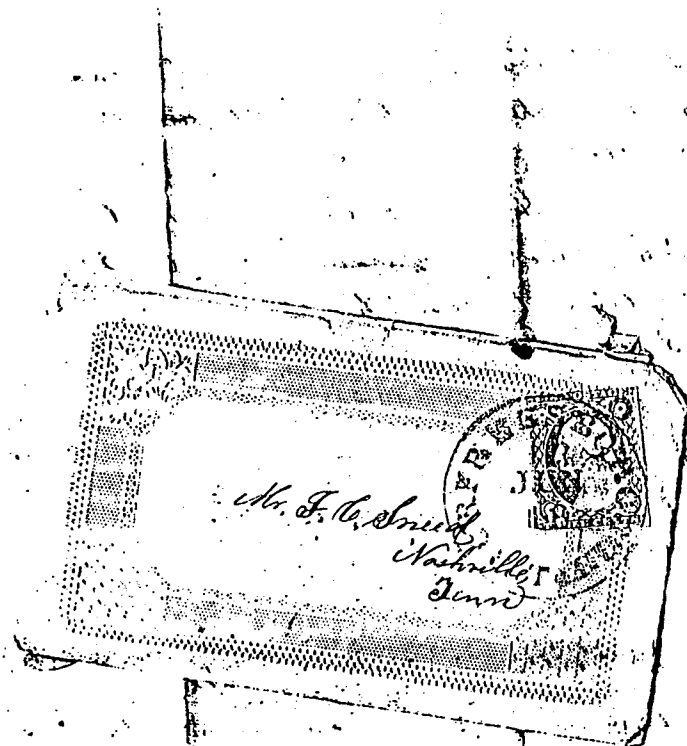

Is there a Fountain Pitts relation to you? There are names that flash in memory before me, - and then, its gone.

I thank you for your letter. I shall do all I can to add to it.

Yours with much appreciation
Ivie May Smith McFerrin

Catharine Hunt (dsp) died in Louisville, KY. at the Methodist Nursing Home on 2/25/1969 and is buried in Lewisburg Cemetery, Ky. Aunt Katie was one of the most remarkable persons I have ever known. She was sweet, gentle, lovable, and gracious. It was from her that I, James W. Sneed, Jr, learned of our ancestors and was allowed to browse through her genealogical material which she had spent a lifetime gathering. The many times I spent at "The Springs" will be remembered. Those times from childhood on until I last visited her just before her death, were some of the most peaceful days of my life. Aunt Katie would be quick to tell you that you spelled her name with an "a" (Catharine), the significance of which I never learned. I have many of her papers she collected over the years and this manuscript could not have been without her work.

Henry Clarence Tucker was a Methodist preacher, member of the Tennessee conference. Served a year or two in churches in home state and then was sent as a missionary to Brazil. In connection with his work he represented the American Bible Society. In 1924 he spoke of retiring and returning to his native land to end his days. The government of Brazil considered his presence so desirable that he was given a home as an inducement to stay.

Dear Vance:

As you know most of my genealogical records are computerized and when you ask for any information you usually get more than you bargained for!!! I am enclosing all the computer family sheets on the Crichlows as well as some correspondence that was in the records of Aunt Katie.

The name Crichlow has been spelled many ways, the one I use is the spelling my grandfather used. He was James Crichlow Sneed, Jr.

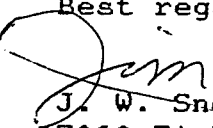

Yes, I am a descendant of the Crichlows. My great-great grandfather was William Temple Sneed (the Brentvale Sneed) who married Elizabeth Guinn Crichlow.

It is very possible that your home was connected with the Crichlow family as they lived in and around Brentwood, Murfreesboro and Franklin. The Perkins family lived in that area also and in one instance William S. Crichlow married Susan Perkins. As you know James Sneed (Sneed Acres) married Bethenia Hardin Perkins. Both Susan and Bethenia were descendants of Nicholas Perkins of Virginia.

If you do not wish to keep all this information you can always drop it off at the Mary Sneed Jones room at the library. Anything else you want, just ask.

Let me express my appreciation for the good job you did in putting together the Association reunion this year. When next through Brentwood I will pay you a call.

Best regards,

J. W. Sneed, Jr.,
